Cameron Johanson, who has grown up around the Branxton Golf Course, displayed his obvious talent by winning Saturday's Branxton Open with a two over par round of 72, one shot clear of Peter Wilton's 73. Cameron, who is currently the Golf and Sports Operations Manager at the prestigious Killara Golf Club in Sydney, made the trip north once again to compete in this year's event. Neil Jordan won the Stableford event with his 36 pts just ahead of local consistent veteran, Eddie Barrett with the same score. the rejuvenated Steve Ross continued his 2018 great form to win the B Grade scratch event with a very pleasing 83, just ahead of Bob Bile's 84. Bob's score included a nearest the pin on the last hole. Mark Makin won the Stableford event with the day's best score of 40 pts. This also meant he was the winner of the Ted Meyn Memorial Trophy. The runner up was Richard Crooks with 37 pts, a score which included a wonderful front nine of 38. Matthew Lorenz won C Grade with a 93 which also included a nearest the pin on the last. Lee Jackson won the Stableford event with his 35 pts with Ted Zawirski winning another prize by finishing runner up with his 33 pts. The longest drives went to Club Champion Joshua Tracey in A Grade, Danny Muncaster in B Grade and P.Cox in C Grade.
