Saturday's stableford competition was very competitive in all grades with Troy Felan winning A Grade with his pleasing 39 pts, just ahead of Bob Biles with his 38 pts. Mick Martin won B Grade with 38 pts on a countback from Peter Marquet with Mick Lutovac's 40 pts the best stableford score of the day, allowing him to convincingly win C Grade from Sam Bridge with his 37 pts. 35 pts was needed to win a ball in a very even competition. The shot of the day belonged to Lee Heuston on the 2nd/11th, finishing only 64 cms from the pin. The difficult 13th proved to be just that with no nearest the pins recorded.

Last Sunday, 4th November, the club's Mixed Foursomes Championships were held with Steve Kearney and Toy Martin victorious with a scratch score of 85, with Eddie Barrett and Melita Watson runners up with their 88. The nett winners were Dave Hollis and Kerrie O'Connell were the nett winners with their nett score of 71.5 just ahead of Carol and Robert Miller with a 73. The ball competition winners were Richard Crooks, Jen Salna, Jim Sheedy, Chris Tancred, Gary Walsh and Ruth McCarthy. Melita Watson and Gary Walsh won the nearest the pins on the 9th/18th hole. All prizes will be presented on the club's Presentation Night. Congratulations to all participants.
